Whether we live in the Renaissance, or in thirteenth-century France, or at the time of the fall of Rome, we are part-and-parcel of our age in every respect. ..its wars, its economic conflicts, its anxiety, its achievement. But no "well-integrated" society can perform for the individual, or relieve him from, his task of achieving self-consciousness and the capacity for making his own choices responsibly. And no tramatic world situation can rob the individual of the privilege of making the final decision with regard to himself, even if it is only to affirm his own fate.

Rollo May

With these words we dedicate this book to you in celebration of Ovid-Elsie High School's tenth anniversary as a school and our 200th birthday as a country.

Good Experience

The team came up against strong competition this year, but they gave the opposing teams as much trouble as they could. This year's squad was one of the youngest and inexperienced teams O-E has ever had. The players also had a considerable amount of injuries, which made it hard to get spirits up. The team ended with a 1-8 season.

The O-E Tankers came up with an excellent winning season in their second year of league competition. The two seniors, Dan Quine and Gene Montague worked hard in their years to bring O-E a new sport. They cancelled their career with seven wins while losing six. This certainly was a considerable improvement from last years 0-15 record. The future of the team lies in the strong and growing youth interested in swimming. We soon will be a formidable team to be reckoned within the Mid. Mich. B. League.

Swim and Guard Corps ...

...More Than swimming

The Swim and Guard Corps is an organization of junior and senior high school students, all interested in swimming and water related activities. Some projects S & G have sponsored are showing movies in both communities and decorating the pool area. The corps painted diving figures on both ends of the pool to brighten its appearance. The future of the Swin & Guard Corps includes the training of instructors, promoting of age group and competitive swimming. They hope to expand the facility someday.

The officers for the Swim and Guard Corps are Gene Montague, president; Pete Montague, vice-president; Luann Rummell, secretary; Joni Arnett, treasurer; and Brian Acre, historian.

They Put It All Together

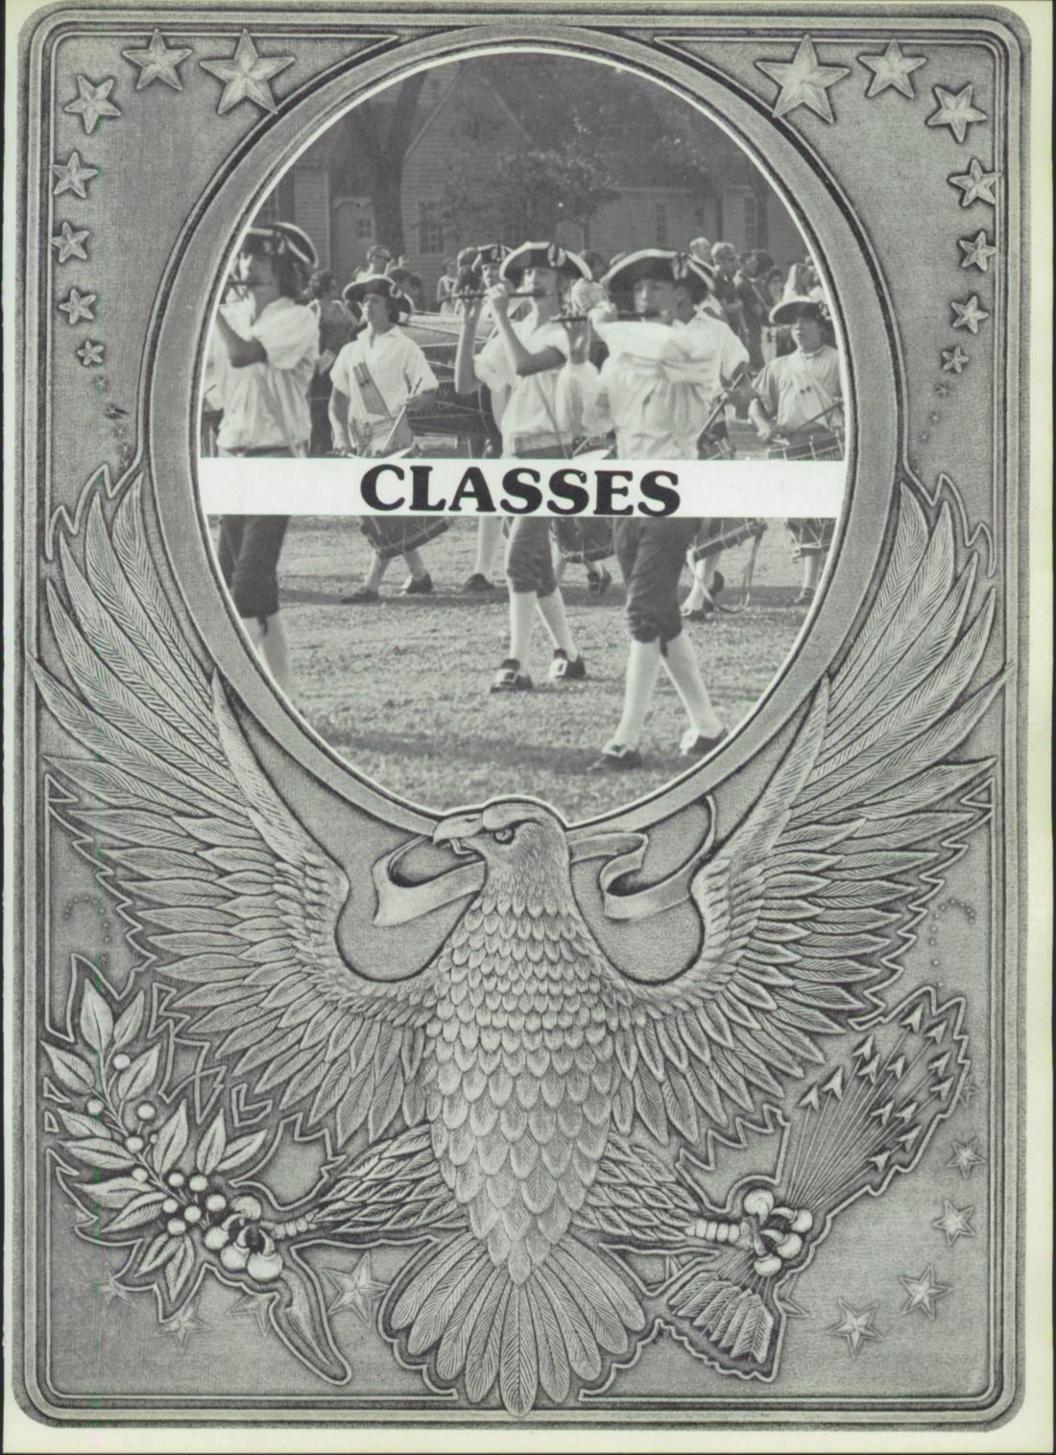

The yearbook class has many responsibilities including one very important one: trying to get the whole student body in the yearbook somewhere that we have 100% representation. Yearbook students go through a whole year of pasting, cutting, taking pictures, doing layouts and staying after school. Once finished the yearbook is a tribute to the school and to the staff who worked long and hard to make it. The top left picture shows the staff. The 1976 homecoming was filled with an exciting week of surprises. A parade started off the week with the O-E Band playing, along with clubs from the high school and also clubs from both towns riding in decorated trucks. Crazy dress-up days were planned by the Student Council for every day of the week. Ceyx, (pronounced Cease) played at the annual homecoming dance in the auditorium and cafeteria. Decorations with colors of red, white, and blue were brought and put up by the Student Council. A memorable homecoming it will always be.

Seniors Dominate

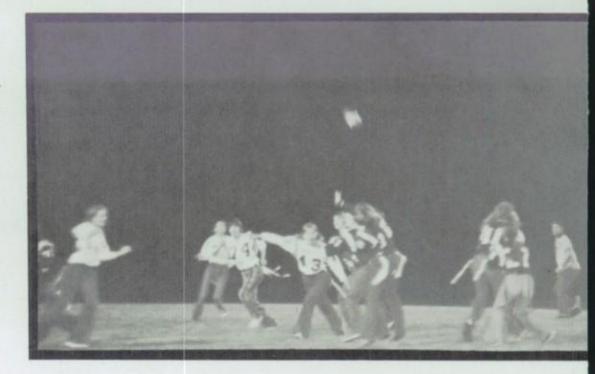

Seniors 26 Juniors 0 "76" "77"

The Senior girls put on quite a show whipping the Junior girls in the annual powderpuff game held at the Ovid-Elsie football field. Even though the score looked like it was a one-sided affair, both teams had an even amount of talent. Both teams had great sportswomanship and made it a lot of fun to enjoy playing the game. A wienie roast was held after the game so the girls could get together for one last time.

I hope the day will be a lighter highway, For friends are found on ev'ry road

"X" Marks the Spot

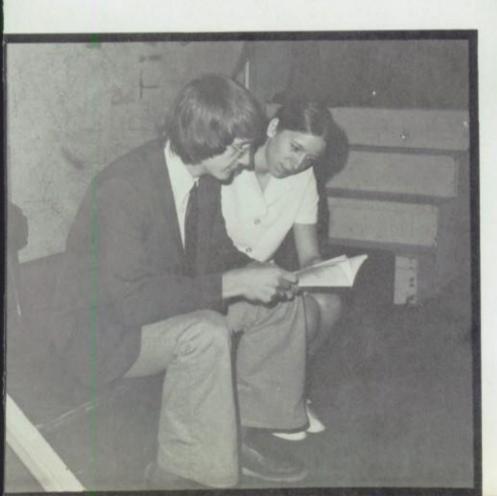

A. The Senior class play was a remarkable play. It was put on in very dark circumstances to the public. The lights happened to go out and they had to have help from generators and a few lanterns. Even though the night was different they put on a very successful play. Mr. Donald Thayer was the director.

Up the Down Staircase

The Junior Class Play, "Up the Down Staircase" was presented last last fall under the direction of Miss Richardson. In a typical classroom setting, students persuade their teachers to continue her teaching career.

Taming these students was certainly a challenge for the teacher in her class. The cast consisted of about 25-30 students.

Schools Get Together

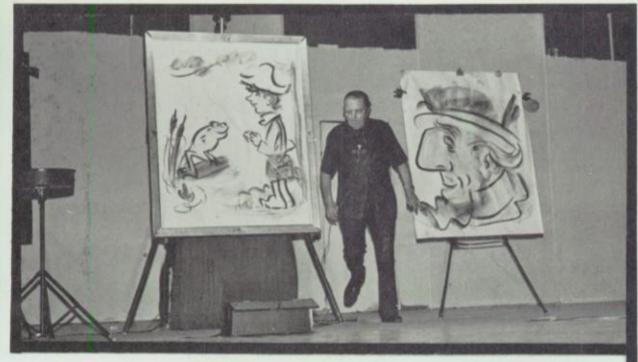

I hope the day will be a lighter highway Ovid-Elsie had the honor of holding the first Student Council League Meet with all of the league schools attending except Alma. Many activities for the day were planned such as in the picture above where a group of kids built a model representing the power of the Student Council. Also a tour of the school was given by students in the O-E Student Council.

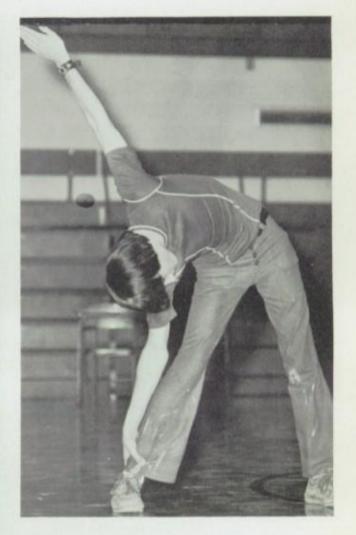

It's Funnn nnnnn Time

A variety of assemblies were provided for the student body for entertainment. The band "Free Fair" made a hit with O-E students along with the yoga man, the artist and the young singing couple from England.

Senior Tea Entertains Moms

The Senior Tea, which is held in the honor of all the seniors mothers, took place May 21 in the auditorium. Little gifts for each senior were given to remind them of their high school dyas. Mr. Oberlin, master of ceremonies, provided a small program for amusement and entertainment. The program concluded with punch and cookies in the cafeteria. The senior party was held that night so that all of the seniors could have a last chance to "party down" together.

Seniors Win Minor Sports Competition

The day of May 19 was a very special day at Ovid-Elsie. Once again, this year the Minor Sports Day was sponsored by the Mass Media classes. The day was spent doing such fun things as marshmallo eating, mud-pie making, pie-throwing, greasy hopping, tricycle racing, blind football kicking and many other things including the all important tug-of-war. As seems to be tradition, the Seniors came out on top, winning almost all of the events.
